What do we do?

Moving an office can be a chaotic and confusing process that disrupts everyday work routines and drains precious productivity from your business. It doesn't have to be that way. When you call on Storr's Move Management team to handle your relocation needs, you'll find yourself in the hands of experts who will keep downtime to a minimum and ensure as little interruption as possible to ongoing office operations. We have the expertise and experience to handle the complexities of a move and allow you to focus on more important priorities. With our veteran project managers, professional movers, factory-trained installers and technicians, and a host of support services, Storr can orchestrate your entire move and keep things running smoothly.

Whether you need a dedicated Move Management team led by an experienced Move Coordinator or are just looking for help to complete a box move, Storr can serve as a single-source solution for all your relocation needs.

How we do it.

Our full-service Move Management program begins with detailed site visits to the origin and destination facilities to develop an in-depth understanding of the scope of the project and site conditions.

We work from a comprehensive move plan that incorporates elements such as voice and data relocation, electrical, security, furniture repair, brokering, and disposal. Storr's Move Management program gives you the freedom to concentrate on conducting business as usual, confident in the knowledge that your move will be handled smoothly and professionally by experts. Services include:

- Assessment of move needs
- Inventory
- Strategic move planning and scheduling
- CAD drawings
- Bid process
- Coordination of subcontractors
- Individual move packages and instructional meeting
- Box delivery and follow-up sweep
- Move desk

Why do you need it?

Storr can provide a flexible, on-demand service that's custom-tailored to your specific move needs. You save time and money by putting your project in the hands of Storr's professional Move Coordinators instead of burdening your staff with additional, unfamiliar tasks. Our experts can help minimize business interruption and maximize efficiency and customer satisfaction.
