DETAILS: Official welcome to Music City for CBA Professional All-Star Team (including Olympic team members) and the Nashville Broncs, Music City's new ABA Professional Team.

Open to the public. Opportunity to meet, conduct interviews with players and Broncs owner, Scott Lumley on upcoming game between the two teams, and upcoming Olympics and ABA/CBA season.

QUOTES:

"We want to welcome the China CBA Professional All-Star Team and the Nashville Broncs to Music City," said Darren Metz, CEO of NovaCopy, Inc. "NovaCopy is honored to provide its world-class showroom where these two organizations can be recognized for what they bring to their sport and to Nashville. We are especially looking forward to our partnership with the Broncs and want Middle Tennesseans to know that there will be fun and excitement throughout the upcoming season."

Scott Lumley, owner of the Nashville Broncs, Music City's new ABA Professional Basketball Team, emphasized the belief of kinship that sports provides in crossing cultures and how the upcoming exhibition game between his team and the China CBA Professional All-Star Team will be a great example of sportsmanship that will carry over into the upcoming ABA season .

"The ability to bring this spirit to Nashville, especially with the Olympic Games right around the corner, is a wonderful way to show Tennesseans how sports can traverse continents and cultures," Lumley said. "The Broncs look forward to extending Music City's offering of family entertainment and values. We hope to see everyone at the exhibition game with the Chinese team at 7 p.m. on May 23 at Fisk University and during the upcoming 2008-09 season."

GAME:

May 23 at Fisk University at 7 p.m.

Tickets can be purchased for $5 at NovaCopy (15 Lindsley Ave), Fisk University (1000 17th Avenue N.) or at the Nashville Broncs corporate office (315 Union Street Suite 1230).
