NOVACOPY CELEBRATES GRAND OPENING IN MUSIC CITY

Panasonic Indy Car, George Plaster and Nashville's Favorite Party Band – Stretta to headline festivities

Nashville, TENN – NovaCopy is celebrating the grand opening of its Nashville Corporate Headquarters and 27,500 square foot office showroom with a day-long party Thursday, Nov. 16 from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Recognized as one of the 500 fastest growing companies in the United States by Inc. magazine, NovaCopy is an award-winning dealer for multifunction office copiers from Konica Minolta and Panasonic that provides equipment, technical service and document management software to its clients. This overall service was officially noted by Office DEALER magazine listing NovaCopy as a "Top 100 Elite Dealer."

NovaCopy CEO, Darren Metz, said the launching of the third NovaCopy office provides Nashville with a state-of-the-art business solution headquarters. The other two locations are in Memphis and Dallas.

"With our global positioning system to provide a quicker response time than our competitors, NovaAssist phone service staffed by qualified technicians and an innovative E-commerce solution, we are on target to provide the outstanding service Nashville businesses desire and should expect," Metz said. "It is all about helping our clients to flourish."

The day's festivities will feature photo opportunities of the Panasonic-sponsored Indy Car, a live radio broadcast by 104.5 The Zone's George Plaster (4 to 6 p.m.) and live music from Nashville's Stretta, opening act for Bruce Springsteen, will perform from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m. (<http://www.strettaband.com/home.cfm>).

"We are so excited to celebrate our arrival to downtown Nashville. The community has embraced us by opening their doors to our sales representatives and we want to say thank you," Metz said.
