THE TERROR OF THE DOCUMENT MANGLER

Ahh... Unsuspecting documents!

What's wrong?

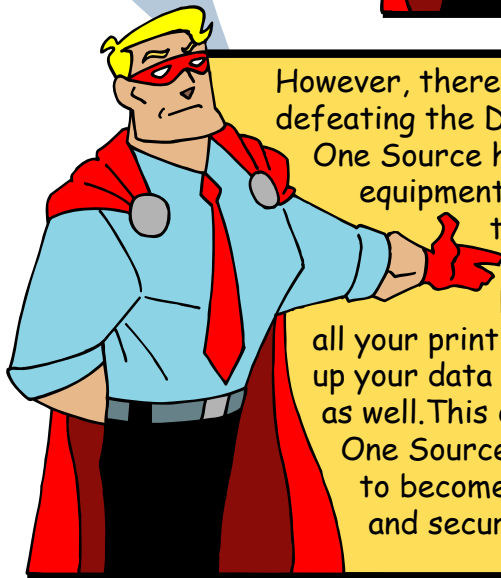

I can't find the Fitzhummer files from last quarter!

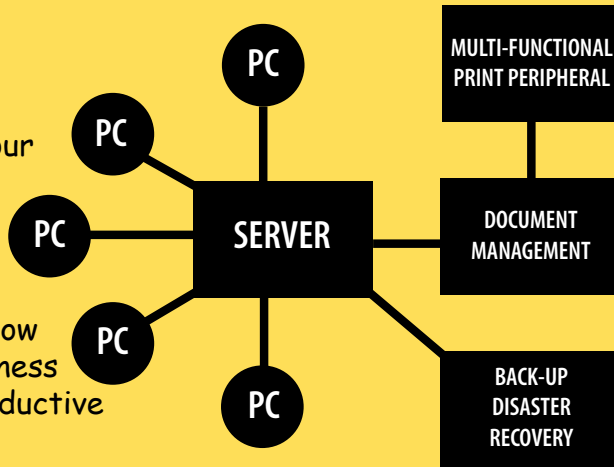

Our document management is awful!

Where does all that data go?

You have entered the Document Mangler Zone. Similar to that one lost sock you can never find...your documents disappear to another dimension. Ruled by the Document Mangler, this vile creature actually lives off the frustration you feel when the documents you've worked so long and hard on are lost into the cyberspace of the Document Mangler Zone.

However, there is hope in defeating the Document Mangler. One Source has the necessary equipment and technical savvy to not only manage your documents... but to coordinate all your print needs while backing up your data in case of a disaster as well. This diagram illustrates how One Source can equip your business to become more efficient, productive and secure.

Curse you, Mylo!!!

Brains over brawn... I love it!
